

APSN/HKSN CME Course 2018

The APSN/HKSN CME Course 2018 was co-organized by the Asian Pacific Society of Nephrology, Hong Kong Society of Nephrology and the Hong Kong College of Physicians, with 85 participants (40 full members, 9 HKCP members, 7 overseas speakers, 20 low-to-middle income countries, 7 APSN Young Nephrologists' Committee members and 2 non-members). The Course took place at the Hong Kong Academy of Medicine on 29 September 2018. Important topics in kidney diseases were covered by local and international speakers, and the lectures were all well-received by the participants.
